Keynote Speaker

LORRIE VOGEL '88

Lorrie Vogel '88 is the founder of ImagineNOW Inc., an innovation consultancy that accelerates innovation by using the power of design thinking. A graduate of the School of Design's industrial design program, Lorrie enjoyed a 21-year career at Nike, with her last role in 2017 as the vice president of Nike's Material Science and Innovation, where she incorporated emerging science and technology into materials, creating game-changing performance innovations for athletes. Her passion for design, innovation and sustainability made her a recognized global leader in bringing innovation to all facets of Nike's products as well as shaping the future of the apparel and footwear industry. Since 2017, she has been providing innovation consulting services to large corporations like Google and to small technology start-ups.

Lorrie has received several honors throughout her career. In early 2011, she was named by the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry as one of the top 12 innovators, holding over 20 utility patents. She was the co-creator of GreenXchange, which debuted at the World Economic Forum (WEF) in Davos in 2010, and she led the regional WEF discussion on sustainable consumption in India. In 2007, she was named to Fast Company's "Fast 50," the magazine's annual compilation of innovative companies and the "incubators of genius." Her sustainable design work has been recognized in several publications: "Strategies for Sustainable Design" (Adam Worbach), "Green to Gold" (Dan Estby) and as an MIT case study. Lorrie continues to be a frequent presenter at universities and is a celebrated keynote speaker for such symposiums as PopTech, Back End Innovation and Design Management Institute's annual conference.

Student Speaker

JULIE SWEI '22

Julie Swei will graduate with a bachelor of fine arts degree in computer art and animation from the Department of Film and Media Arts. She was named a VPA Scholar, the College of Visual and Performing Arts' highest undergraduate honor, as well as an Invest in Success Scholar, which recognizes first-semester, high-achieving students at Syracuse University.

Julie has served as club vice president of Orange Shorts Animation Studio, as an intern/research assistant for Burnt Orange Game Lab, and as an intern at ZeroVFX in Boston. Most recently she interned on the West Coast at the Operating Room production company and at Pixar Animation Studios, where she was a Pixar Undergraduate Program (PUP) intern. Julie also served as a VPA Ambassador for the college's Office of Recruitment and Admissions.

ABOUT THE CONVOCATION PROGRAM

Please note that the names in this program are not an official listing of degree recipients. Students must be certified for their degrees after the posting of their final grades. Only those students who filed their diploma request by the publicized deadline are included in this publication.

CONVOCATION RECEPTION

All students, parents, and guests are invited to join VPA faculty and staff for a reception immediately following the ceremony on the field in the west end of the Carrier Dome. Please use the main concourse to access the field at aisles 103, 104, 113, or 114. If you require assistance to access the field, use the elevator at Gate B (between aisles 105 and 106). Staff will be available to assist you. Note that restrooms are available on the main concourse.
